San Antonio STOCK YARDS
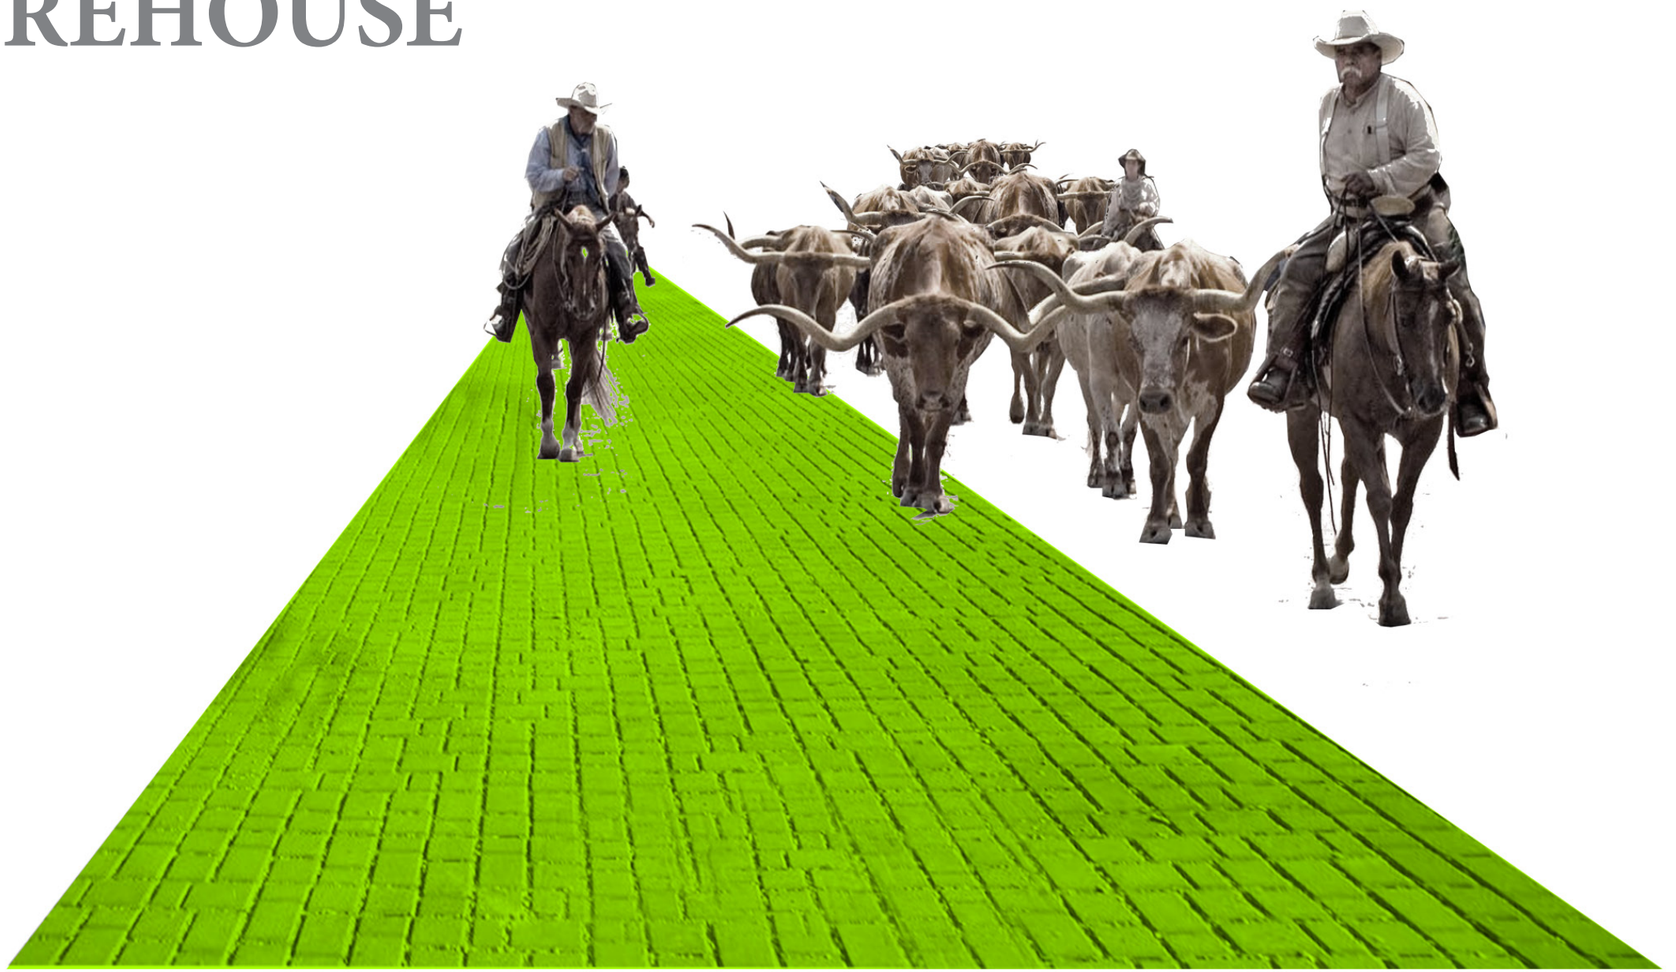
+ SCOBEY WAREHOUSE



Mark Odom Studio – 1009 West 6th Street #50 – Austin 78703 – 512.469.595

m(ødm)

FORT WORTH STOCK YARDS, Fort Worth, Texas

EXPERIENTIAL ASPECTS TO TAKE FROM FORT WORTH:
Using a language of existing materials mixed with modern additions

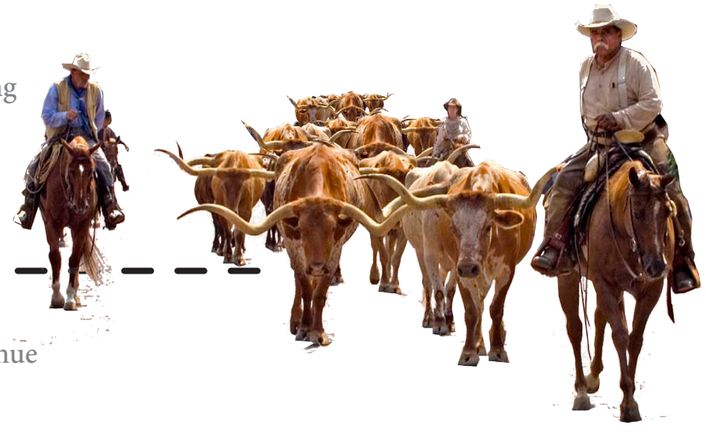
REPURPOSE EXISTING BUILDINGS
Using a language of existing materials mixed with modern additions

VIVID SIGNAGE
Adds to the “stock yard” environment

ACTIVE STREETSCAPE
Mixed use retail and commercial access, dynamic lighting strategies and facade variety

“SAN ANTONIO STOCK YARDS”
Continuing “gateways” from the existing areas on East Commerce as well as create a type of “district for the 0.6 mile stretch along E Commerce to I37

CATTLE DRIVES!
Live parades from the stock yard area down E Commerce as an event and venue



HISTORIC ROADWAY MATERIAL
In designated areas

ADDITIONAL LOTS
More potential sites to promote the beginning of the development of this area.

SCOBEY WAREHOUSE
First area of intervention and start of development

"CATTLE DRIVE AREA"
Maximizing the area around the Scobey Warehouse as a destination and event by holding cattle drive parades

STREET TREES
Utilizing rhythm of sidewalk trees to denote different areas of the promenade.

DOWNTOWN PROXIMITY
The potential of this area is further enabled by it's close proximity to downtown San Antonio and the Riverwalk at a short 1.5 miles

COMMERCE STREET
Existing major thoroughfare
for San Antonio, good traffic potential

CONTEXT PLAN / SCALE 0 40 80 160 ft

SITE PLAN /

SCOBEY WAREHOUSE
First Area of Focus

“GATEWAY”
Vista designation for entry to Stock Yards

“CATTLE DRIVE”
Designated path for cattle parade.

Material Concepts:
Grass, natural, wood, slightly raised, bedded, rustic, pedestrian walkable when parade is not active, flush with roadway, potential to drive over

Size: approx. 18’ wide
Holding two lanes of traffic (one on each side)

Character above cattle drive:
Potential for light stringing, speakers, colors, lighting

N

SITE PLAN / SCALE 0 20 40 80ft

CHARACTER PERSPECTIVE / Shot A -- Looking from W Salinas ST towards Medina

CHARACTER PERSPECTIVE / Shot B -- Looking North from Medina & W Travis St

CHARACTER PERSPECTIVE / Shot C -- Looking South from Medina & W Martin St

Mark Odom Studio – 1009 West 6th Street #50 – Austin 78703 – 512.469.595

m(ødm)